POLITICAL PARTIES OF MICHIGAN URGE ADOPTION OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Republican Plank.
 "We believe the time has come when Michigan should extend the right of suffrage to women on equal terms with men, and we endorse the Constitutional Amendment looking toward that end, to be voted upon at the November election, and call upon the voters of the State to adopt it by emphatic majority."
 "We further favor the immediate submission to the several States of the proposed amendment to the Federal Constitution granting suffrage to women, and we call upon the legislature of Michigan to ratify such amendment when so submitted." (Adopted in Convention September 26, 1918.)

Democratic Plank.
 "In accordance with the pledge of the National Democratic platform adopted at St. Louis in June, 1916, we commend to the voters of Michigan the granting of suffrage to women on the same terms as men by this state at the approaching November election. Confident of the rectitude of our purposes and the patriotism of our program of political action, we call upon all right thinking men of Michigan to rally to the support of the Democratic ticket at this election." (Adopted in Convention September 25, 1918.)

Vote for the Woman Suffrage Amendment November 5.

MICHIGAN'S CHOICE EQUAL SUFFRAGE A VITAL WAR ISSUE

Legislature of Michigan Selected State Constitutional Amendment as Method of Enfranchising Michigan Women.

TO BE VOTED ON NOVEMBER 5.

On That Day the Voters Will Have an Opportunity to Open Wide the "State Door" for Michigan Women.

There are two ways by which the women of Michigan may be enfranchised—one is by the so-called "federal route," the other by the "state route." The first means that the two houses of Congress by a two-thirds majority in each house must pass a resolution to submit to the Legislature of the 48 states a federal suffrage amendment to the Constitution of the United States. When this has been passed the amendment must go to the 48 state legislatures to be voted on. If 36 (three-fourths) of the legislatures vote yes it becomes law, nationwide suffrage for women becomes a fact, and the present ridiculous discriminations by reason of which a woman can lose her vote by stepping across a state boundary fall into the discard.

That is one way by which Michigan women may be enfranchised. It seemed to Michigan women, as to other women, that it was the right way, the short way, the economical way. But a small minority of United States Senators (34 against 62) have blocked that way. Over and over the opposition to the federal suffrage amendment pointed out in that memorable suffrage debate in the Senate which closed October 1 that it was not woman suffrage per se that was being opposed; it was the manner of getting it—it was the federal route.

"Women can get the suffrage by the state route," said the opposition. "Let them do it. Let each state take care of its own women. The state door is open. Let the women enter that way, not this."

No one other point was used so often and so insistently as an argument against the federal suffrage amendment. On no other did the opponents of the amendment fall back so complacently. Speaking of no other, did their faces so unawakenedly assume the expression of the cat that ate the canary.

"The states can and will give women the suffrage. Let the women of each state go to that state. The door is open—thus the men who shut the federal door in the faces of American women."

Now come the women of Michigan to their own state seeking that open door to which they have been so cavalierly waved.

Michigan women have this advantage—their case goes to court, the great court of public opinion, on November 5. At least it will be an advantage if Michigan men make the most of the opportunity to give Michigan women a square deal.

Michigan men can open wide the door of Michigan.

They can vote yes on woman suffrage on November 5.

They can make America 100 per cent democratic so far as Michigan is concerned.

COUNCIL OF DEFENSE FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

The Executive Board of the Woman's Committee of the Michigan Division of the Council of National Defense, by unanimous motion, endorsed equal suffrage and pledged itself to work for the ratification of the Amendment to the State Constitution enfranchising Michigan women. This Amendment will be submitted November 5. The Executive Board also voted to send a copy of this resolution to all the members of the State Division of the Woman's Committee, Council of National Defense, with a request for ratification of the same. This action was also unanimously endorsed. The Detroit members ratified without a dissenting vote.

GOVERNOR SLEEPER ENDORSES SUFFRAGE

Governor Sleeper, in an address at the Michigan Republican Convention, paid a fine tribute to Michigan women. He said: "If anything were lacking to convince any of us that the women of this state have a right to the ballot surely the magnificent war work that they have done in the past 18 months and their willingness to sacrifice in the cause of freedom have supplied the lack."

"The splendid self-sacrificing labors of all our women, the devotion of mothers who have given up their sons, of young wives who have given up their husbands, are beyond praise. Can we now do less than confer upon them the privilege of the ballot?"

GROWTH OF SUFFRAGE WITHIN THE YEAR.

In 1917 the women of New York State won full suffrage. After Canada went into the war British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario women were given full provincial suffrage. This year Canadian women everywhere have won Dominion suffrage. Last year Michigan, North Dakota, Nebraska and Rhode Island granted presidential suffrage to women. Arkansas women won primary suffrage and Vermont women state-wide municipal suffrage. This spring Texas men gave women primary suffrage. On November 5 the voters of Michigan will have an opportunity to place Michigan in the group of full suffrage states and by this act register that they stand 100 per cent for democracy.
